Lennertz & Co. bolsters team with newly created Tax and Legal department, headed by former RSM partner

- Dr. Bastian Euler will be responsible for the newly created Tax & Legal department at family office Lennertz & Co.
- To date, he has advised private equity and venture capital funds as well as entrepreneurial families from the German “Mittelstand”

Hamburg, 9th May 2023

The owner-managed family office Lennertz & Co. has appointed Dr. Bastian Euler, an expert in the structuring of M&A transactions and international tax planning. The lawyer and tax advisor will be responsible for the newly created Tax & Legal department at the family office. Adding him brings Lennertz & Co.'s team total to 35 professionals.

Dr. Bastian Euler previously worked at the Top Ten auditing and tax consulting firm, RSM. He spent six years at their New York office, before becoming a partner at their Berlin office. Dr. Bastian Euler has also worked at the multidisciplinary law firm, Boege Rohde Lübbehüsen BRL, in Hamburg.

His main areas of expertise include advising medium-sized companies and tax-efficient structuring of domestic and foreign private equity and venture capital fund investments.

"With his wealth of knowledge and expertise, Dr. Bastian Euler's appointment will strengthen our expertise in national and international asset structuring. His addition to the team equally bolsters our expertise in structuring direct investments, private equity and venture capital funds. We are pleased to have such an experienced tax and legal expert, with an international orientation, join Lennertz & Co." says Philipp Lennertz, Managing Partner at Lennertz & Co.
